Education Assistant (EA)

The primary goal of the Education Assistant is to support the educational opportunities and interventions designed to improve the participation and learning outcomes of students with disabilities and/or specific learning needs.

Education Assistants play an important role in assisting and supporting students with special learning needs and/or disabilities.

Education Assistants are required to undertake the prescribed duties of employment as detailed by the Principal in the job description/duty statement.

The primary role of the Education Assistant is to directly assist classroom teachers to implement, monitor and supervise the planned learning experiences within the classroom and in other areas as directed by the teacher.

Like all staff in Catholic schools, Education Assistants will be expected to:

- Actively contribute to and maintain the Catholic vision and ethos of Catholic education;
- Abide by policies, guidelines and directives of the Catholic Education Commission of Western Australia;
- Abide by policies, guidelines and directives of John Paul College;
- Support the philosophy of the Catholic Education Commission where all students with disabilities and special needs are included in mainstream education;
- Help ensure the provision of a Catholic perspective and support the co-curricular activities of the school;
- Perform such duties as customarily rostered and shared by all staff including meetings, staff events, school events, professional development and training; and
- Undertake appropriate accreditation programs and training at the discretion of the Principal.
